Victim of Jonathan Groff's online stalking and harrasment 2006-present

Dear ***** ,

Thank you kindly for your response regarding the false information on your website posted under a fake name by my long time cyber stalker Jonathan Groff aka Sven Mogul, owner of Neocoretechs.com since the 1990's, and well-known herpes virus carrier as well. DO NOT CONTACT JONATHAN GROFF.

Over the years, Jonathan Groff has purchased domains such as music.com (which he purchased in 2007 after I got a restraining order against him). On this site, Mr Groff put up nude pictures of me which he had taken without my knowledge while I was sleeping, and posted that I was a whore and a bad person who could not teach guitar to children, and stated that I used drugs.

Like all of the accusations Mr Groff has thrown at me, I am innocent of said behavior. Mr Groff has accused me of having STDs on your website, but Mr Groff has herpes and he is an adulterer. That is why I left him. Mr Groff has had his home raided and all of his computers taken away in a long-standing identity theft and harassment case against me. During these raids, many many marijuana plants were found.

Since my business name is under the name  , I hve experienced a lot of financial hardship and economic distress as a result of these false and misleading postings that Mr Groff posted under a false identity such as SVEN MOGUL. And now, your website stdcarriers.com is costing me economic distress.

Included is a plea agreement signed by Jonathan Groff and Jonathan Groff's attorney Donald Roach, executed by Deputy District Attorney Kevin Demer and District Attorney Michael Schrunk, executed in the courtroom of the Honorable Judge Jerry Hodson. Mr Groff is to "release all domains, websites and blog postings and USERNAMES in relation to  or her businesses," and he has not done so.

You may discover that SVEN MOGUL is Jonathan Groff with the following facts:

1 - SVEN MOGUL posted to your stdcarriers.com website about  who he has harassed since 2006.

2 - SVEN MOGUL is listed on google as owning neocoretechs.com.
